The Contest. The State Central Committee of the Comservative party of Virginia, at its last meet ing passed the following resolution: 2. That in view of the bold and threatening attitude assumed by this disorganizing upon the Conservative party to proceed promptly and vigorously to strengthen and perfect its local organization in all the counties and cities in the State; and the county superintendents or chairmen and into full and efficient operation.

The bold and threatening attitude assumed by the disorganizing convention lately held in this city is the reason given for the action taken by the representatives of the Conser-Vative party. The enemies of that party as it is now officered took the necessary steps to form a new and opposing party. They it was who precipitated the contest. They it was who organized a new party. They it ginia State Agricultural Society Monthly was who "began this thing." Now, let Journal for March. them stand up to the fight. That the Conservative party has fallen into the hands of the bondhelders and their agents is of itself an all-sufficient reason (if the statement be true) why the people should have a chance to join a new party. The Forcibles declare that such is the fact; that the address lately issued by the Conservative State Central Committee was the work of men who are slaves to Mammon and ene-Forcible wish to dwell in such company? Does any Forcible desire to be longer called "Conservative," if such, indeed, be the character of the men who constitute the Conservative organization? KER (but why name any when all the leading Conservatives in Virginia are on one side?)if these men, we say, have proved themselves unworthy of the trust which has been placed in their hands, it is time that a new party were formed to represent the honest masses of the people.

Is there any hope for the Conservative disorganizing faction"? Think on't.

What Chief-Justice Taney Said. We yesterday denied that Chief-Justice TANEY had ever said that a negro had no rights which a white man was bound to respect. So general is the impression that he expressed, I must decline to accept it. did say so, that perhaps it will gratify many persons to read the exact words which he used in the connection in which that distinguished jurist employed them. We plan for a settlement of the public debt therefore quote them from the opinion of reached the House of Delegates in ample the Supreme Court of the United States in time for its consideration and adoption by the celebrated DRED Scorr case. The Chief that body, but by dilatory tactics the small Justice said:

unfortunate race, which prevailed in the civilized and enlightened portions of the world at the time of the Declaration of Inthe United States was framed and adopted. But the public history of every European nation displays it in a manner too plain to be mistaken.

"They had for more than a century be order, and altogether unfit to associate with the white race, either in social or political relations, and so far inferior that they had no rights which the white man was bound to respect; and that the negro might justly and lawfully be reduced to slavery for his benefit."

We have italicized a few words. It wil be seen that Chief-Justice Taney's language expressly refers to what was thought of the negro a hundred years ago in the world at large. He did not in this language allude nor under the Federal Constitution. He this added burden can sink that body had no right & white man was bound to re- tion is doubtful; but the feeling among the spect." He merely said what people thought people is overwhelmingly in favor of an of the negro all over the civilized world in the last century, as shown by the history of settlement will, as they should, be set apart every nation in Europe. See, therefore, as utterly unworthy of trust and dangerous how outrageously unjust is the Cincinnati Commercial's language which we quoted

"Judge Tancy stated as a fact, not as a point of law, that a negro had no rights a are afraid there is something in it yet in our southern America."

But the Commercial gave utterance to the almost universal belief of the northern peoplc. They are so deeply prejudiced against ployment on any State, county, municipal, the southern people that they cherish falsehoods as truths and publish them as such.

The Richmond correspondent of the Louisville Age says:

"The split between the two divisions may now be considered as complete and final, no matter what shall be the fate of the plan of the people, as heard on their court-greens, unsetting it. Should it be defeated, they will remain banded together in opposition to the funding set and the funders."

That correspondent's signature is "C. M. S."-the initials of a former editor of the Whiq. At any rate, be sees the skuation as it is. The Conservative party can do nothing else than make war upon the disorganizers. Those readjusters who are opposed to the proceedings of the Mozart-Ball convention have only to join in the combat.

army and the legiclative appropriation bills, which failed to pass at the late session. For this reason there is some talk of yielding their position touching that part of the election law which provides for supervisors, but they are determined to insist upon the repeal of the law authorizing the employment of deputy marshals, of the law autherizing the use of troops at the polls, and of the jurors' test-oath section.

When the late Judge Guigon of this city was asked to summon negroes as jurymen he gave the subject much consideration, faction, the duty and the necessity is laid and reached the conclusion that to do so would be to summon them "on account of race, color, and previous condition of servi-

WELL DONE, GOVERNOR HOLLIDAY .- The number who are opposed to a settlement defeated it by filibustering until the time "It is difficult at this day to realize the arrived for the adjournment of the session; state of public opinion in relation to that but the Governor came to the rescue, and immediately convened them in extra session, and it may be now pretty safely assumed that the liberal offer of the holders dependence, and when the Constitution of of the State bonds will be accepted, and the debt question be peaceably and forever settled .- Fairfax Messenger.

THE EXTRA SESSION .- Governor Holliday did right in convening the Legislature in fore been regarded as beings of an inferior extra session. The people will sustain him in it. Nearly the whole of the regular session has been frittered away without action on the very matters in which the people were most interested-a settlement of the State debt and the amendments to the Constitution. The will of the majority should never be allowed a defeat at the hands of a factious minority .- Clinch Valley News.

The mougrel convention, by its ill-timed assemblage and notorious misrepresentation of the popular convention, may justly share in the odium attaching to this prolonged agto what the pegro's rights were in his day, itation of disturbing questions. The California Constitutional Convention has grasped the Chinese problem with a strong hand, and utters an emphatic protest against the degradation of labor. It has white man was bound to respect; and we adopted a provision probabiling any corporation now existing, or hereafter to be formed in the State, from employing any Chinese or Mongolian in any capacity, either directly or indirectly; also, forbidding their emor other public work. Thus does the sovereign State of California rise in her might and veto the veto of the bogus President .-Washington Post.

The readjusters' convention has brought hundreds, if not thousands, over to earnestbe accepted, and the cry everywhere among settlement proposed by the creditors. If is that this matter must be now settled, and adopted by the two houses, the readjusters | the unity of the Conservative party prewill continue their agitation in the hope of served. More than that, the action of the readjusters in forcing an extra session at the cost of the people has satisfied them of the absolute selfishness of the leaders of this new party.—Lynchburg News.

Major Henry's letter is another evidence that the true readjusters are no longer in sympathy with the new party, that has done all in its power to defeat readjustment. The effort that has been made to bind a large party of bonest men and carry them over to the camp of the repudiators has most signally failed. Who is to Be the President? The New York Herald of Saturday published interviews with 127 Democratic members of the late House in regard to the presidential outlook in their party. Expressions of opinion as to the probable or possible action of the National Nominating Convention of 1880 were obtained from all the States with the exception of those whose delegation in the House are solidly Republican and one or two others where the sole Democratic representative declined to talk. VIRGINIA .- Mr. Beale, First district, says :

· Thurman or Hendricks would be accepta-Mr. Goode, Second district, thinks Tilden has no chance whatever for the nomination. Mr. Cabell, Fifth district, says his State is anti-Tilden. Mr. Tucker, Sixth district, does not think Tilden will be the candidate. Mr. Hunton, Eighth district, thinks the feeling is overwhelmingly against Tilden's renomination. Mr. Pridemore, Ninth district : " We can carry Virginia with Tilden in 1880, or any other good nominee."

The opinion most general among the 127 is that Tilden will not be the nominee. Thurman is a general favorite everywhere, and Tilden, Bayard, and Hendricks are strong in some localities.

A rather fussy diplomatist left his card for Admiral Goldsborough, United States navy, inscribed E. P. in the corner, and on meeting the Admiral he said: "I hope you got my card." "Oh, yes; but what the devil's the meaning of the E. P. on it?" 'Oh, en personne." Soon ofter the diplomatist received the Admiral's card inscribed S. B. N., and in turn asked for an interpretation. "Sent by nigger," explained the Admiral .- New York Sun.

The Governor has called an extra session of the General Assembly. This was deemed necessary, in view of the fact that important matters had been left unfinished. The bill to readjust and settle the State debt is the most important unfinished business. By filibustering the Forcibles prevented the settlement of this question, and now the people are subjected to the additional cost of an extra session. Let us hear no more prating about economy .- Hillsville Virginian.

1. William and Mary College in Virginia, if it accepts the offered transfer to the University of the South, shall in no sense cease to exist nor change its name nor-alter its character, but will merely exercise the right (granted in its charter) of removing to another part of the original territory of Virginial. Sewance was a part of that original territory, and was included in the Intent of the charter when granted.

After the transfer William and Mary College of Virginia will become WILLIAM AND MARY COLLEGE OF VIRGINIA IN THE UNIVERSITY OF THE SOUTH: and shall be regarded in the University as the representative of the interest of the Diocese of Virginia in the University of the South.

2. The Board of Visitors of William and Mary College may continue to exist according to its charter, and to look after the special interests of the College in the University, and shall for that purpose be represented in the Board of Trustees of the University of the South by a delegation equal in numbers to that which the Diocese of Virginia would be entitled to more the Roard.
